

The Atlantic Byron Bay has been designed as a relaxed getaway, with individually styled guestrooms set in original cottages. It's the epitome of eclectic cool.

Photo: Alicia Taylor, atlanticbyronbay.com.au

Eclectic

Embrace your fun-loving side with casual outdoor elements that mix old and new in unexpected ways.

Bright colours and gypsy inspired prints on the Suzani outdoor rug – it's environmentally friendly, fair trade from India and easy-care. ecochic.com.au

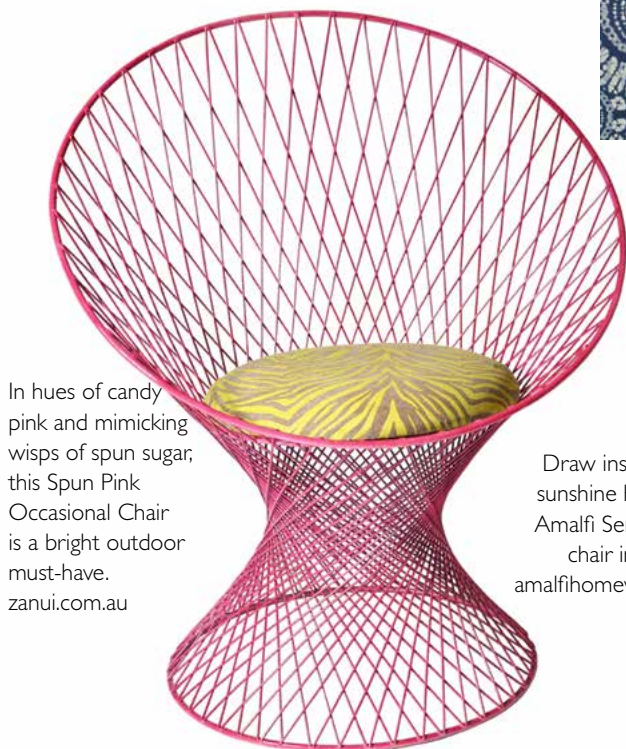

Scatter these lovelies around for added comfort and a dash of colour. Constructed from marine-grade fabric in France, they're filled with spongy balls of polyester cushion fibre – seriously, you'll feel as though you're floating on a cloud. They're also designed to handle everything the outdoors can throw at them, be it sun, rain, hot, cold, corrosive salt air and mildew. lujo.com.au

Designed just for the outdoors (fade-resistant, too), Osier Belle cushions are just what your space is calling for. Love the Sunbrella Zara cushion. osierbelle.com.au

Statement textiles are perfect for the outdoors, and the OD Batik fabric from Clarence House channels a bit of island vibe with some moody navy. The dyed acrylic hue will hold up to the test of time and the elements, too. textilecompany.com.au

In hues of candy pink and mimicking wisps of spun sugar, this Spun Pink Occasional Chair is a bright outdoor must-have. zanui.com.au

Draw inspiration from sunshine hues with the Amalfi Seminyak rattan chair in bold yellow. amalfihomewares.com.au

